

Nixon Makes Unscheduled Trip to Hungarian Border

J. N. GENERAL ASSEMBLY IS WORKING TOWARD RECESS FOR CHRISTMAS HOLIDAYS

By TOM HOGGE
United Nations (AP)—The U. N. General Assembly worked doggedly today to clean up business at hand so it could close shop for the Christmas holidays.

The 30-nation body pressed ahead with its current Middle East debate, interrupted last night by the visit of India's Prime Minister Nehru.

The Assembly began two months late because of the U. S. election and has been delayed repeatedly by emergency sessions on the Hungarian and Middle East crises.

France brought the Middle East question before the Assembly again last night, again raising charges that Egypt is mistreating French nationals. French Delegate V. G. d'Estrange spoke out despite a report from a British spokesman that both Britain and France had received assurances regarding the treatment of their nationals in Egypt and that the situation appeared easier.

D'Estrange brought up evidence which he contended knocked down Egypt's denials that French citizens were being mistreated.

D'Estrange charged that French nationals had been beaten and imprisoned in Egypt, their property sequestered and their personal belongings seized. He said some were forced to leave the country after they had been reduced to poverty.

Replying to Egyptian charges, D'Estrange declared no permanent restrictions had been placed on the return to Egypt of Egyptian nationals residing in France. About 100 such requests had been granted, he added.

D'Estrange urged Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld again to see that Egypt observes international law in its treatment of French citizens.

Egypt has accused both the British and French of subjecting Egyptians to severe measures in their countries. Both sides have denied the other's charges.

Withdrawal Plans Working Out Smoothly

By LEONARD LEDDINGTON
Port Said, Egypt (AP)—The last two times of unfinished business before departure of British-French forces apparently were cleaned up today.

These were an exchange of prisoners and an announcement that the British salvage fleet will stay at Port Said to help clear the way or traffic through the Suez Canal.

The British-French handed over 386 Egyptian prisoners of war to the U. N. force shortly after noon today. The Egyptians surrendered 450 British civilians to J. N. troops, who conducted them by train into the buffer zone near El Cap, south of Port Said.

Vice Adm. L. F. Durnford Slater, commander of the British-French naval task force, announced last night that hundreds of the 1,100 men of the British salvage fleet had volunteered to continue work under the U. N. flag and U. N. protection.

There was no immediate indication from Cairo as to how the Egyptian government would react. (Turn to Page Fourteen)

Mamie and Ike Give Staff Photographs As Christmas Gifts

By DOUGLAS E. CORNELL
Washington (AP)—President and Mrs. Eisenhower, in a change from last Christmas, today gave each member of the White House staff two pictures of themselves with an engraved autograph and greeting.

In the past, the Eisenhowers' Christmas presents to White House employees has been a reproduction of an Eisenhower oil painting.

This year, the gift consists of a profile photograph of the President, smiling broadly, and a full-length picture of the First Lady. Underneath is an inscription: "With best wishes for a happy holiday season."

The gifts were distributed personally in a traditional reception in the White House East Room.

White House personnel—about 60 of them—filed by and were greeted with a handclasp by the President and Mrs. Eisenhower.

For members of the staff, such as police, the Secret Service, messengers and others there were toys for each of their children under 12 years of age.

Today's traditional White House ceremony followed Eisenhower's public wish last night for a "truly merry Christmas" to everyone throughout the world.

Extended weather forecast for Saturday, Dec. 22 to Wednesday, Dec. 26:

Western Penn'a, Western New York, West Virginia—Generally mixed weather expected to continue with temperatures averaging 6 degrees above normal, brief cooling in New York Saturday, partly sunny Sunday probably mixed with some snow in New York, and rain likely again Monday or Tuesday, totaling about ¼ inch.

Bus Boycott In Montgomery Is Brought to End

Montgomery, Ala. (AP)—Segregation barriers were hauled down on Montgomery city buses today but there was no immediate evidence of close race mixing on the early morning runs.

Most of the early riders leaving and arriving at a downtown bus stop were Negroes, some of whom had boycotted the segregated buses for more than a year until today.

Some of the Negroes took seats toward the front, previously reserved for white passengers under the now outlawed separate seating pattern. Others went to the rear.

Associated Press reporter Henry Bradsher said some of the buses he saw at Court Square had passengers of both races but the Negroes were seated behind the white riders.

One Negro, Eugene Williams, arrived riding in a front seat. He said the bus driver made no effort to stop him.

The "white" and "colored" signs which once divided the two races were gone today.

Two Negro ministers, the Rev. Harold A. L. Clement of the Mount Zion African Methodist Episcopal Church, and the Rev. A. W. Wilson of the Holt Street Baptist Church, were among the early riders.

Negro spokesmen had announced earlier that an effort would be made to have a minister or Negro civic leader on each bus during the first few days of the transition to integration. They said they hoped it would prevent possible violence.

The U. S. Supreme Court decision outlawing bus segregation in this Deep South city of about 120,000 population went into effect yesterday, but the Negroes waited until today to return to the buses.

Their spokesman, the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr., warned two mass meetings last night that Negroes must remain calm and give no excuse for violence.

Reckless Driving Charge Follows Head-on-Smash

Two men were injured yesterday and one of them was charged with reckless driving after a resounding two-car head-on collision on Pennsylvania avenue, East, near Anderson's Market at 4:35 p. m.

Frank Dodge of Clarendon Heights, aged 63, swerved directly into the path of a westbound machine, according to Warren police who leveled the reckless driving charge.

Dodge received a broken nose and ribs. Driver of the other car, Joseph Solock, 33, of 3 Center street, sustained head and leg bruises.

Damage was estimated in excess of $1,500.

Twelfth Night Party In Jefferson January 8th

Preparatory to the traditional Twelfth Night Ceremony to be staged by Warren-Forest Girl Scout Council on Tuesday evening, January 8, a party will be held in Jefferson School at 5:00 p. m. for selection of the King, Queen, and Royal Court. Identity of these individuals will be revealed, as is customary, through tokens hidden in the cupcakes to be served for refreshments.

Each girl attending the affair is asked to bring a nosegay lunch, her own choice of beverage, and a nickel. Norma Sponsler, Senior Girl Scout of Troop 4, will recite the Story of Twelfth Night, and all girls of the area are cordially invited.

Chances Are Slim for A White Christmas

Washington (AP)—The Weather Bureau—with fingers crossed—sees little new snow for the traditional white Christmas next Tuesday. But the northern Midwest can expect a holdover covering from weekend snows.

A special national weather bulletin today had this to say:

"Although it is somewhat early to be certain of weather for Christmas Day, the Weather Bureau outlook at this time indicates prevailing fair weather over most of the nation.

"However, storm remnants may produce some wet weather along the Atlantic Seaboard and in the Pacific Northwest. Snow flurries are likely in parts of Wyoming and Colorado."

Tragedy Ends Flight Home For Christmas

By The Associated Press
Eight persons perished yesterday in six air crashes from California to Pennsylvania. A seventh plane carrying two men disappeared.

A U. S. Steel Corp. twin-engine plane exploded and smashed to bits on a bleak mountainside near Tyrone, Pa., killing a steel executive and two crewmen. U. S. Steel identified the executive as Alden Roach, 55, of San Francisco, president of the Columbia-Geneva Steel Division of U. S. Steel.

The corporation identified the dead crewmen as pilot Ray Rollo of Los Angeles and copilot L. T. Williams of Sunland, Calif. The plane had taken off at Greater Pittsburgh, Pa., Airport for Idlewild Airport, N. Y.

In San Francisco, Robert Walker, 27, of San Leandro, Calif., drowned when his helicopter turned upside down as it was making a turn and plunged into San Francisco Bay.

At Mays Landing, N. J., an F8U Crusader, one of the Navy's fastest new supersonic jet fighters, crashed within five minutes after takeoff from the Atlantic City Naval Air Station.

Sea of Fog Ties Up Most Air Traffic In Sections of Nation

By The Associated Press
A sea fog 1,000 miles wide tied up most air traffic in the central section of the nation today.

The Weather Bureau at Chicago said the pall extended from western Iowa to the west to Pittsburgh on the east. It closed in while Christmas travel was building toward a peak.

Chicago's Midway Airport, normally the busiest commercial field in the world, reports only a few planes were moving. O'Hare Field northwest of the city had a similar slowdown. Meigs Field on the lakefront was closed.

Flights at Detroit were canceled this morning. Several chartered buses brought grounded air travelers to Detroit from Cleveland and Buffalo.

Visibility at Cleveland Hopkins Airport was a quarter of a mile this morning. Several flights were canceled. Others were made on a delayed basis.

Many flight cancellations were reported at Columbus, Ohio.

The Weather Bureau at Chicago said the fog in the Midwest may not dissipate until Saturday.

But planes were taking off today, with visibility of two miles, after being held up through the night at Lambert-St. Louis Field. Operations close to normal were reported at Kansas City, at the edge of the fog belt.

Fog caused trouble at a few spots outside the big overcast area.

Former Indiana Klan Leader Granted Parole

Indianapolis (AP)—Gov. George N. Craig today freed D. C. Stephenson, former Indiana grand dragon of the Ku Klux Klan, from his life sentence for murder. The only stipulation was that he leave Indiana and never return.

The parole and discharge from custody frees the former KKK leader from the necessity of reporting to parole officers. On a previous parole, he was returned to prison as a violator for failing to report.

Stephenson, who ruled Indiana Republican politics in the early 1920s and boasted "I am the law" in Indiana, was sentenced to life imprisonment in 1925 in the death of Midge Oberholtzer, a state-house secretary.

Court House Party

Approximately 50 members of the Court House family enjoyed their annual Christmas party at noon today. The bar of justice was next to the snack bar in this instance as the party was held in the large Court Room for the first time. County Commissioner Blain Mead arranged most of the event and was assisted in serving by Mrs. Agnes Mong, judge's secretary.

Trees of Matchless Splendor Wreathed in Garlands Sparkle Everywhere in America Today

By REILMAN MORIN
Associated Press Staff Writer
It is a tree of matchless splendor, wreathed in garlands of love and devotion.

Bright Christmas colors gleam in the branches, symbols of warmth and compassion, courage and hope. That silver ball is a child's laugh, the holly a kindly act. The shimmering ornaments were put there by happiness, and the candles speak of faith.

Where is this tree? It is everywhere in America today.

Who brings these precious gifts? Uncounted numbers of people, known and unknown, of many faiths and races, from every station in life.

One was a man in Philadelphia, a delicatessen owner. He bought a big tree, set it up outdoors, decorated and lighted it, and put a sign on it: "This tree is for all people who are homeless or who have no Christmas tree of their own."

And one was Judge John J. Walsh in Utica, N. Y., who was about to jail a chronic alcoholic when the prisoner showed him a letter from his daughter. It said she thought the man was dead.

The judge withholding sentence, gave him some money and said: "Merry Christmas and God bless you . . . I hope you get to her."

Surely a bright strand was placed on the tree this week by Dr. Laurence Jones, 72-year-old Negro educator. He is president of the Pmcy Woods School in Mississippi where 500 underprivileged youngsters work their way from grammar school to college.

He came to Camp Kilmer, N. J., bringing Christmas trees and 10 bushels of pecans grown by his students, to the Hungarian child refugees there.

And surely a television program in the Veterans Administration hospital in San Fernando, Calif., will throw a bright gleam on the tree.

There, on Christmas Day, veterans suffering from tuberculosis will talk to their families over a closed-circuit TV hookup. It has been years since some of the men saw their children. Those under 15 are not admitted to tuberculosis wards.

A group of volunteers in California raised the money and arranged for the program.

In Brooklyn and New York, the navy is bringing hundreds of poor children aboard the USS Intrepid for dinner and presents, giving each child a sailor host and guide, and sending truckloads of gifts—from contributions from the men—to every veterans hospital in the area.

The hearts of people went out to children everywhere.

Most Plants Have Holiday on Monday Before Christmas

A survey made this morning of various plants in the area reveals the information that many of the workers will enjoy a nice holiday over Christmas, as a number of the plants and offices will close Monday, December 24, providing employees with extra time for last minute Christmas shopping, tree trimming, and all the numerous last-minute details that need attention. Some workers are also fortunate enough to have a holiday Monday, December 31.

Hammond Iron Works employees will not work either December 24 or December 31; Sunray will not work on either date; Sylvania Electric will be closed Monday, December 24, and plant workers will not report December 31, but the office force will work that day. DeLuxe Metal will close both December 24 and 31. New Process will not work December 24, but will work December 31.

Struthers Wells shop will not work December 24, but the office force will work until noon; on December 31, the whole plant will be in operation. Penn Furnace announces that the plant will be closed on both days, but the office will be open as usual. At the National Forge, workers will have Monday, December 24 off, but will report for work the 31st. Thomas (Turn to Page Fourteen)

Top Leaders Give Tax Package Of Governor's Committee Far-From-Enthusiastic Reception

Harrisburg (AP)—The 250-million dollar new-tax package recommended by a governor's study committee received a far-from-enthusiastic initial reception from four top legislative leaders of both parties today.

Of five major tax changes proposed unanimously by the 12-man bipartisan committee, only the biggest money raiser—retention of the sales tax at the current 3 per cent rate—went without criticism.

Reps. Johnson and Readinger, the Republican and Democratic House leaders; Speaker-designate Helm and Sen. Mahany, GOP Senate leader in the last session, agreed on the need for an amendment to the law so that the rate does not automatically drop to 2 per cent on June 1.

But from there on each had his own idea about the four remaining major recommendations.

All were hesitant to express themselves before a thorough reading of the five-month study made public yesterday.

The four other recommendations and their estimated yields:

1. A one cent a bottle tax on soft drinks to raise 35 million dollars during the 1957-59 fiscal period.
2. Making permanent the extra penny tax added on a pack of cigarettes to finance last year's flood emergency 22 millions.
3. Removing the present sales tax exemption on liquor and beer sold for on-premises consumption, 16 million.
4. Making the full sale of a new item acquired in a trade in taxable under the sales tax, 28 millions.

The recommendations were made on an estimated new revenue need of 240 millions, a deficit for 1955-57 of 79 million dollars; and "a minimum state budget for 1957-59 equivalent to the 1955-57 budget plus the increased expenditures mandated by existing law."

Gov. Leader, who appointed the committee with the hope it would come up with a program he could present the Legislature, declined to take an immediate stand on the report.

Rain Blamed for Wreck On The Illinois Central

Belleville, Ill. (AP)—An Illinois Central train, crawling through fog and darkness, overturned and plunged down a muddy 20-foot embankment early today. One woman was injured fatally and 23 other passengers were hospitalized.

Mrs. Orson Covell, 70, of North Platte, Neb., died a few hours after the wreck which occurred just after midnight. She and her husband were en route to Jackson, Miss., to spend Christmas with a son, Richard Covell.

The train, bound from St. Louis to New Orleans, ran into trouble soon after leaving in the foggy, misty night. Belleville is just across the Mississippi River from St. Louis.

Authorities said the derailment resulted from a shifting roadbed at night in which holiday colors

State's Winter Wonderlands Togged Out in Holiday Attire

By RUSSEL LANDSTROM
Philadelphia (AP)—Pennsylvania's winter wonderlands are togged out brilliantly for the Christmas holidays. Nothing is lacking but a picturesque coating of snow.

Winter arrives today but barring the most unlikely kind of upset, it will be a tame display, quite out of character for December.

It appears that those who plan to spend the holidays in the Pocono Mountains and other year-round vacation regions will have to take along illusions of a white Christmas, and be satisfied with amusements other than skiing, sleigh riding, skating and tobogganing.

The state's vacation retreats never have been more lavishly decorated. Huge Christmas trees are aglow indoors and out. Inns, lodges and cottages are outlined at night in rich holiday colors.

Great wreaths hang upon the doors and in the windows.

At Washington Crossing Park in Bucks County, the Christmas Day piece de resistance is a recreation of Washington's crossing of the Delaware on Christmas night in 1776. Community leaders a few years ago hit upon the idea of an annual ceremony, in costume, commemorating one of the most dramatic events of the Revolutionary War. Washington's crossing of the Delaware is, popularly referred to as America's own Christmas story.

The Washington Crossing Park Commission has made a Christmas announcement of definite plans for the memorial museum which was approved by both houses of the Legislature and Gov. Leader last June. The museum will be a meeting place for student groups, Boy Scouts, veterans organizations and related societies and also provide ample space for Christmas and other celebrations.

Vice President Is Planning To Return Sunday

BULLETIN
Vienna (AP)—Vice President Nixon made an unscheduled, secret visit to the Hungarian border at 3:30 a. m. today to watch Hungarian refugees slipping into free Austria. He disclosed this tonight and called it the "most thrilling experience of my life." U. S. Embassy and Austrian officials had indicated earlier they frowned on a trip to the border by the vice president for security reasons. Nixon was accompanied by Austrian police on his trip.

By CARL HARTMAN

Vienna (AP)—Vice President Nixon met with Chancellor Julius Raab and most of the Austrian Cabinet for an hour and a half today, discussing hard facts and figures of the problem created by 140,000 Hungarian refugees.

Nixon is seeking first-hand information to guide President Eisenhower and Congress in dealing with the aftermath of the Hungarian revolution.

Nixon was to leave for Salzburg tonight for a look at refugee camps in that area and then proceed to Munich tomorrow. There he will visit the "Safe Haven" operations base from which the U. S. Air Force is flying refugees to the United States.

The vice president is expected to start his own flight back to the United States Sunday morning.

Although Nixon and members of his small party declined to discuss the meeting with the Austrian leaders, authoritative sources have disclosed that the Australian government will have spent more than seven million dollars caring for (Turn to Page Fourteen)

County Red Cross Hungarian Relief Fund Over the Top

A happier holiday, gained through the knowledge they have shared it with others less fortunate, is assured fifth grade pupils in Room 13 at Jefferson School, taught by Kenneth D. Plimpton.

Just before noon today, it was learned from Warren County Red Cross Chapter it had received a check of $15 from these young students, raised when they brought to school cash contributions instead of their customary exchange gifts.

A short time before this report came in, Red Cross officials also stated the Hungarian Relief Fund total has climbed to $1,284.05, well over the $1,202 quota assigned the local unit by its national headquarters.

In this new figure were included several sizable gifts from individuals and organizations, and $250 from the vestrymen at Trinity Memorial Episcopal church.

Endeavoring to raise a staggering goal nationally, the Red Cross is most grateful for the contributions which have sent the unit "over the top" once again and will welcome additional gifts to swell the total still further.

Businessmen and Officials Staging Drive To Hold Down Deaths Over Long Weekend

By SAM DAWSON
New York (AP)—With the office party season coming to its annual climax today and tomorrow many businessmen are joining law enforcement groups in the drive to hold down traffic deaths in the coming long weekend.

There are around 72 million Americans who drive cars. The majority of them will be on the streets and highways at some time during the period between Friday evening and Tuesday midnight. The Christmas holidays usually see the year's peak of traffic fatalities.

The trend last year and this has been to put a brake on the office Christmas parties which have often had traffic accidents as after-math.

Segments of the liquor industry are appealing for temperance before driving and have a tie-in with the coffee industry to urge that drivers make a cup of coffee their "one for the road."

The auto industry this year as last stresses the safety features built into the new models.

The National Safety Council in Chicago estimates that the four-day holiday may see 660 traffic deaths in spite of all the warnings. The three-day Christmas holiday last year set a record of 609 deaths.

The Fraternal Order of Police in Philadelphia notes that auto fatalities so far this year are eight per cent ahead of last year. It fears this Christmas season will also set a new record.

The National Licensed Beverage Assn., with a membership of 50,000 tavern owners and operators, and the National Retail Liquor Package Stores Assn., with 30,000 retail liquor stores as members, and Seagrams Distillers Co. are placing ads this year in 84 newspapers with an estimated 20 million readers, urging that coffee be the for-the-road drink.

Packets of instant coffee are being distributed to the distilling company's retail accounts so that bars can offer a free cup to departing patrons.

In some areas coffee companies are cooperating with local police to offer free cups to drivers showing signs of fatigue.

While drinking gets much of the blame for the traffic toll, there are other factors.

The Fraternal Order of Police urges avoidance of driving when over tired, as much as after drinking. It also suggests keeping a car window open, turning on the radio, or talking with other passengers as ways to help stay awake.

Santa Given Lift By Girl Scouts On His Letter Project

More than 900 letters to Santa Claus were answered this year through the cooperation of Santa with the Retailers Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, the Warren Post Office and Girl Scout Troop No. 22 in charge of Mrs. A. L. Chapman.

The letters were mailed in the Santa Claus mailbox which was placed on the Carver House lot at the corner of Hickory and Pennsylvania avenue by the Retailers Committee at the opening of the Christmas shopping season.

The Retailers in turn gave the letters to Girl Scout Troop 22 which has made sure that each boy and girl received a return answer from Santa Claus.

Santa has sent word, however, that he will not have time to answer any more letters this year because he is so busy at the North Pole making gifts for delivery on December 25.

HUNGARIAN RELIEF

Methodist churches of Warren have just received a communication from the Council of Bishops of the Methodist Church asking that "an opportunity be given their people to make a freewill offering on a convenient Sunday between December 15, 1956, and January 6, 1957." This offering is to be used for Hungarian Relief. No quotas or askings are being set. It is to be an offering from the heart. The Revs. Reed Hurst, Clarence Baldwin, and A. Culmer Schultz are designating the Communion Offerings of their respective churches to be sent to this Hungarian Relief Fund.

ARRESTED IN JAMESTOWN

Jamestown Sun: New York State driving rights of a Warren man were revoked when he appeared in City Court Thursday on charges of driving while intoxicated and driving without a license. Forest E. Dunham, 36, of 10 Franklin street, Warren, was fined $50 on the drunk driving charge, his license privileges in this state revoked and he received a suspended sentence of 20 days in Mayville Jail. On the charge of driving without a license, he was fined $25. The arresting officer picked up Dunham early Thursday morning as the Pennsylvania man tried to get into a closed restaurant on Brooklyn Square after staggering from his car to the restaurant door. When checked, Dunham had no operator's license.

JOINT AIRPORT

Plans for a survey to determine the best site for an airport to serve both Crawford and Venango counties appeared to have been scuttled by action in Franklin yesterday. The Venango County Commissioners awarded a contract for a survey to learn if further improvement of existing airports in this county is justified. This move is expected to counter efforts to provide a central site to serve both counties and Titusville, Oil City, Franklin and Meadville. The $5,690 contract was awarded to Landrum and Brown, airport consultants of Cincinnati, O. A second part of the bid, which would provide for picking the best possible site in Venango County in the event the improvements were not justified, was not included in the contract. This phase would cost an estimated $3,450 extra. Franklin Mayor R. R. Bleakley Jr. said point-blank he was only interested in improving Chess Lambertson Field.

ESCAPES BELL RATE HIKE

The Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania is charging more for its services but residents of Erie city and county escaped the rate hike with a whole skin. That's because the increases, approved by the PUC and put into effect December 11, involve community service only and leave long distance rates untouched. Bell, according to Miss Alice Carrig, chief operator in Erie, said the firm serves no communities in Erie county. The Erie office deals only with long distance calls. Warren, Bradford, DuBois and Punxsutawney are the nearest towns to Erie that have Bell home phones and will pay more for the privilege of talking. Bell is now filing revised

RULES FOR SAFE HOLIDAY DRIVING

Highway safety authorities in America are keeping their fingers crossed this year as the holiday season begins today, hoping that there will be fewer accidents this Christmas and New Year's than last.

C. H. Lamb, motor vehicle commissioner of Virginia and new president of the American Association of Motor Vehicle Administrators, in expressing the hope, warns however, that this can be accomplished only if drivers continue to cooperate and if police and other safety officials continue vigorous traffic enforcement.

"Last year, a record 609 people were killed over the three-day Christmas weekend and 345 over New Year's," Mr. Lamb says. "Despite the fact that many people will have four-day weekends this year, a good safety record can be established if motorists put their minds to it," he adds.

Good rules for safe driving that will keep the accident figures down, not only over the holidays but throughout the year, Mr. Lamb says are:

1. Observe the courtesy of the road; don't confuse horsepower with hogpower if you want to stay alive.
2. Slow down at dusk and at night; don't "over-drive" your headlights.
3. Stay alert at the wheel and stay alive. Stop for a "safety break" and cup of coffee at frequent intervals on long trips, or before starting home at the end of a festive evening.
4. Plan your holiday trip so you go and come when you are rested, not after a busy day; and allow plenty of time to make it.
5. Remember, mixing alcohol and gasoline is the first step to suicide.

DOWN THE HOME STRETCH

The 1956 Christmas shopping and mailing season will draw to a close by Monday afternoon, and this would seem to be a good time and place to remind readers of some schedules that must be met if they are to finish under the wire.

Stores will be open until nine tonight and Saturday, closing at five on Monday. At the post office all windows will close at noon both Saturday the 22nd and Monday, the 24th, and no windows will be open Sunday the 23rd. There will be complete deliveries of in-city mail Sunday and both rural and city mail on Monday.

For information about services in local and area churches Sunday through Tuesday your attention is called to a complete roundup to be found on another page.

THANK YOU FOR ED AND MABEL!

As any adult knows and children discover perhaps too soon, the true Christmas spirit grows outward from the heart which swells from rigors of many kindnesses. If this is true (and we believe it is) certainly the heart of this region is bursting today in a sort of communal satisfaction over the great goodness shown Mr. and Mrs. Ed Stokes. Any undertaking of this paper can only be as successful as you the readers make it. It was your generosity which blossomed as our good news. Thank you, in behalf of the Stokes, in behalf of ourselves.

The Times-Mirror staff is happy to join with the many other friends and well wishers in extending felicitations to Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Redding who are quietly observing their 58th wedding anniversary at their home in the Warren Apartments today.

To the large number of young people home for Christmas from schools and colleges we extend a hearty welcome. So nice to have you back.

Here and There

A press dispatch from Harrisburg says that unless your car is an antique or you are a press photographer, an amateur radio operator or the governor, the chances are you won't get a special license plate for your automobile next year. It says the state Revenue Department issues about 4,000,000 license plates a year. Some 60,000 of these are what the department calls "specials", and it takes almost an act of the Legislature to get one. Unlike many other states, which make extra money by selling a motorist a special tag with his name, phone number or wedding anniversary date used as his vehicle registration number, Pennsylvania only recently—and reluctantly—started manufacturing special tags. Gov. George Leader last year approved a General Assembly bill which enabled radio "hams" to get special tags with their station call letters for an extra $3. Special tags also are issued to owners of cars certified as "antique". These tags, extra large with white figures on a purple background, are sold for $12.50 and need not be renewed so long as the car remains in the possession of the person to whom the tag was issued. Press photographers managed to get the last Legislature to authorize special tags upon payment of an additional $5. for the front and rear of their cars bearing the letter PP and a numeral. The governor does not use them, but the department will also turn out four plates with the state seal to be used on the front of his official cars. Regular tags are displayed on the rear. All other official Commonwealth cars get a new series of permanent registration plates first issued for 1956 marked "For Official Use Only".

Those of you who may be planning to be in Washington for the inauguration January 21st will be interested to learn that the U. S. armed forces will display eight of their missiles in the parade. The Army will show off the Redstone, the Corporal, two Honest John Missiles and two Nike missiles. The Navy will have a Regulus, Terrier, Sidewinder and Sparrow. For the first time the U. S. Air Force Academy will be represented with 550 cadets and a 37-piece band. The U. S. Military Academy will send 1,200 cadets and its band from West Point. The U. S. Naval Academy is sending 1,900 midshipmen and its band. The Marine Corps' celebrated 75-man band also will march down Pennsylvania avenue. In all, 11,757 members of the Armed Forces will parade.

Here's a cheery Yule greeting from Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Hedges, better known to Warren friends as "Pete" and Joyce, Clearwater, Fla., where they are engaged in the growing, packing, shipping of all types of Florida citrus in season, also Florida marmalades, jellies and honey: "Hi Ed—Although many want a 'White Christmas', we'll settle for sunshine and sand—and we're having plenty of both! Temperature in the high 70's for the past few weeks! All's well with all we Hedges down here. Give our regards to all."

And this one from Mrs. Melba S. Gray, former well known Warren resident and frequent contributor to the columns of the Times-Mirror, who resides now at 118 East 11th street, Coyle, Nebraska: "Well I am still a resident of Nebraska, here by choice as my health will not permit my returning east, but since I find myself very welcome in Floyd's home. I am glad to remain, although I do miss Raymond and his family and my friends back east, but I hear of so many who have passed away. Were I able to read I would subscribe for your paper, but Floyd is too busy as a hospital administrator to read more than my mail to me and with six children they are kept busy. Weather lovely here; no snow and only one rain since Labor Day. With all good wishes to you and yours for a Blessed Christmas season, I am sincerely Melba S. Grady."

Growing Political Stature Forecast for Vice President

BY DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Vice President Nixon's trip to Austria to investigate the refugee problem at the request of President Eisenhower is further proof of the new and important part Nixon is being assigned in formulating American foreign policy.

Nixon's recent speech revealing the administration's plans for recovering from the effects of events in the Middle East was the tip-off on his new role in foreign policy.

But spokesmen close to the vice president, and White House sources, indicate that the President has several additional assignments for the youthful, ambitious Mr. Nixon.

According to these reports, the vice president will be given greater authority to speak on matters of race relations, military affairs, education policies, government-business relations and straight politics.

These are the subjects which Nixon discussed most frequently during the recent campaign. He has an interest and background in them. And like apparently feels that he can carry on in these fields profitably for the administration.

IT'S LIKELY, however, that the vice president will choose to make foreign policy his number one activity outside of presiding over the Senate.

The appointment of Gov. Christian Herter of Massachusetts to replace Herbert Hoover Jr. as undersecretary of state is fortunate for Nixon's new top-level role in this field. Nixon and Herter served in the House of Representatives together and are good friends.

They did not serve on the same committees but they saw eye-to-eye on many issues. For a period, Herter's son, Christian Jr., worked on Nixon's staff. Young Herter accompanied the Nixons on their trip to the Far East.

NIXON AND HERTER will be junior partners in U.S. foreign policy formation, starting out together, and with sympathetic views. It's reported that Ike will continue his new personal interest in the details of foreign affairs even with Secretary of State Dulles back on the job.

There's scant danger of too much talent being put on U.S. foreign affairs at this time.

After Nixon's boo-boo of claiming Republican credit for the Supreme Court desegregation decision because Chief Justice Earl Warren was a Republican, it was thought that the V. P. would be kept out of racial matters.

But during the campaign he addressed many Negro groups, not hesitating to discuss all types of racial problems and, according to GOP experts, did the party a lot of good.

The vice president also has served as chairman of the President's Committee on Government Contracts which has dealt with preventing discrimination among employees doing government work. This has been valuable background for his new role in the racial field.

Nixon will undoubtedly stay close to the school desegregation developments and other racial problems and be a prime GOP spokesman on them.

REPORTERS COVERING the Nixon campaign wrote that he was making an obvious bid for 1960 votes by spending so much time on college campuses where most of his audiences were too young to vote in 1956. Nixon discussed education matters as well as youth and the GOP at these times.

Whatever his motives, White House spokesmen say he won support for the Republican party among young people and made a good case for Ike's educational policies.

Preparations for Model Train Derby at 'Y' Well Under Way

Preparations for the annual Model Train Derby is well under way according to an announcement by Kenneth Peterson, chairman of the annual, eagerly awaited event sponsored this year by the YMCA and toy merchants of the town, Ace Auto Stores, The Toy Center and Western Auto Stores.

This year the race will take on larger proportions as the winner—Champion of Warren—will race against the winner of Corry YMCA race and the winner of Jamestown's Train Race. This Tri-County play off will be run at Corry this year as their race is the test of the three. A beautiful trophy has been procured, and will be retained by the winning city for one year. Next year the race will be run again.

Warren YMCA has borrowed the track for the race from the State YMCA but hopes to amass its own track and equipment which is why the entry fee has been set at 25 cents and one piece of "O" gauge track per entrant. The nominal admission of five and ten cents will help defray cost of trophies.

This year the race will be limited to owners of trains which run on "O" gauge and "O27" gauge track due to limitation of time and equipment. It is hoped this time next year the committee will be able to add a special class for American flyers.

Sheffield Rotary Club Enjoys Book Review by Member

Sheffield—Rotary Club meeting Tuesday had 22 members present for the noonday luncheon at the Sweet Shoppe. The dining room was decorated with a Christmas tree, tables were lighted with candles and during the luncheon, carols were played.

George Fetterolf substituted for the program, briefing an article that appeared in a recent scientific magazine, and giving a brief review of Henry Van Dyke's book, "The Fourth Wise Man."

The article from the magazine described some electric batteries that were discovered some time ago in some of the Egyptian ruins, and the discoverers constructed some batteries exactly the same as those ancient ones and found that they worked very successfully. It was a surprise to learn that the ancient Egyptians knew the art of electro gold plating better than 2,000 years ago. Mr. Fetterolf pointed out that this was one of the cases where the ancients had knowledge that we knew nothing about and that some inventions and discoveries had to be rediscovered by our modern scientists.

The review of the book was not only interesting but was especially fitting for this time of the year. The story relates how the fourth wise man was delayed on his journey due to a badly injured man. Upon his arrival in Bethlehem he found that the Christ child had been moved to Egypt, and the book relates his continuous wandering for thirty-three years trying to locate the King of Kings. He finally located him during the Crucifixion. During the time of his wandering he had given away the jewels that he originally started with, each time by way of helping a person in need. The death of the fourth wise man occurred on Golgotha at the time of Christ's death, and the closing is very touching.

The next two meetings will be omitted, and the next stated meeting will be held January 8th.

The Homebuilders Bible Class of First Methodist church had its Christmas party Tuesday evening, with a twelve dinner at 6:30. Four guests were Rev. and Mrs. Jack Parsons, Mrs. Hilda Reed and Elsie Nelson. Mrs. Evelyn P. Gallor, program chairman, arranged a program with many taking part, giving legends about Christmas in other lands. There was group singing of Christmas carols, and an exchange of gifts. Decorations were the work of Mrs. W. O. Christenson, Mrs. Howard Perry, and Mrs. Gust Swanson.

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

The Y-Teens are unable to sponsor a basketball dance this evening because Beaty Y-Teens are having a Christmas dance.

Latin, German and Spanish classes sang Christmas carols today and several of the typing classes had a Christmas party.

Any German student is invited to meet Monday evening at 7:30

TROPHIES FOR TRAIN RACE: Shoppers are urged to view the above trophies and prizes displayed in the window of the Blue and White Restaurant, which will be awarded to winners in the various classes of the Annual Model Train Race, which is scheduled for Thursday, December 27 at 2:00 p. m. at the "Y" Youth Canteen. Much preparation has gone into this annual event, and it is anticipated that this year's race will be even more successful than the previous ones.

Toy Renovation Program Big Success

Frank Price, chairman of the Underprivileged Childrens Toy Renovation program of the Warren Kivans Club, has announced that the project this year was very successful, with more and better toys than ever before. He would like to thank all those who had a part in helping, such as the local firemen who did an outstanding job in renovating the toys; the Rescue Squad, who did the hauling; Mrs. Jordan and Mrs. Schaeffer of the Child Welfare Association who distributed the toys; also Mr. Gerasimos, Mr. Evan, Wendelboe's, Service Hardware, and all the kind-hearted persons who donated the toys. The toys in the above picture by Stokes, are only a small portion of what was originally accumulated, 11 large bicycles, 12 tricycles, numerous scooters, and pedal cars, having been already distributed.

Brokenstraw Officers Plan Future Programs

Youngsville—At the first meeting held by newly-elected officers of Brokenstraw Grange, Lecturer Leo Johnson made a number of suggestions which will be brought before the membership at the next regular meeting. Among these were the recommendation that the meetings begin promptly at 8:00, the lecturer's program at 8:45, sharp.

For January 8, his program will deal with "Why Grange Ritualism?"; January 22, "Social Security and Its Effects", with a guest speaker; February 12, Youth Ambassador Sallie Weiler will report on her experiences in Holland this past summer; February 26, the Grange will hold open house for all members and friends, with an offering for a worthy cause to be announced later; March 12, a Swift and Company story-film, "The Red Wagon," will be shown.

Charles features his own brilliant showcase of piano technique in flashy interpretations. The program will feature waltzes, polkas, fox-trots, a special medley trip down memory lane playing the old favorites, and the latest Hit Parade tunes.

Musical Program Presented in High School Assembly

An inspiring and lively Christmas Assembly was presented at Warren High School this morning by members of the Choralists, the Girls' Choir, and the Orchestra.

Carroll Fowler, director of the choir, introduced the group singing. The first carol, "O Come All Ye Faithful", was sung by all with Carolyn Anderson as accompanist. Selections by the Girls' Choir included "Candle Lights of Christmas" by Repper; "Carol of the Sheep Bells" Slovak tune; and "White Christmas" by Berlin. The choir was dressed in white blouses, dark skirts, and colored neckscarves.

The Christmas spirit really entered the students' hearts during the singing of "Deck the Halls", the sound of the singing being tremendous.

Directed by Harry Summers, the orchestra played "The Doll Dance", "Toy Train", and "Santa Claus is Coming to Town", with the audience joining in.

"The First Noel" was the next beautiful carol with the girls, boys, choir, etc. taking various phrases.

The blue and white-robed Choralists presented "We Wish You a Merry Christmas", "Three Songs for Christmas", with Mr. Summers directing the choir and the orchestra; and "Go Tell It on the Mountain".

The audience and the choir joined in singing their very lively and spiritual version of Jingle Bells.

The closing song, with the audience standing, was "Silent Night" and the second verse was made breathtaking by the hushed atmosphere of the humming.

The hour-long assembly was one of the liveliest Warren High School has seen, students catching the Christmas spirit and joining in the singing eagerly.

Bible Words for Today

GALATIANS 5:22—"But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control..." (RSV)

Most people want to be good, although they may deny it. If you accuse them of being unloving, morbid, beligerent, impatient, unkind, evil, faithless, rough, uncontrolled, they would deeply resent the accusation. Goodness, in all its manifestations, is an ideal to which we naturally subscribe and aspire.

But how shall we be good? Shall it be by auto-suggestion or self-hypnosis? "Every day in every way I am getting better and better?" Shall it be by keeping a very careful guard on oneself, watching carefully lest one find himself breaking any of the rules of good behavior? Shall it be by retreating into a shell, away from the "world", so that no temptations may attack us? Shall it be by imitation of goodness in others?

Paul tells us that there is a better way than any of these: Let the Spirit bear fruit! Let the Spirit of Christ fill your life, and your life will bear the fruit of the Spirit. Instead of patching your life and prodding yourself, let the Spirit of God have freedom to lead you. The Spirit of Goodness will always bear good fruit. Then goodness will not be an artificial addition to your life, but the natural expression of your own best self.

Intelligent Wives Accept Husbands' Gradual Change

THERE'S no such thing as a "perfect wife" as an ideal that any woman might strive to become.

There's not even any way for a woman to know when she marries a certain man the kind of wife she'll need to be in order to make her husband happy.

For it takes a long time of living with a man for a woman to even begin to understand him. Even so, he never stays the man she married.

As the man matures and his responsibilities and interests change and broaden he actually becomes a different person with different needs.

That is why we so often hear the phrase, "Keep up with your husband." It doesn't really mean you have to know everything he knows about his work, share each and every one of his interests, or be afraid to let him go anywhere that you can't follow.

KNOW HIM AS HE IS TODAY

It really means that you've got to know him as he is today and again as he is tomorrow instead of thinking of him in terms of what he used to be and what he used to want.

Women who fall behind their husbands do so because they don't really know their husbands. They remember how they used to be and think defiantly, "He used to think such and such was important. What's wrong with him now?"

Nothing is wrong with change. And what does it matter how he used to be and what used to be important to him?

The important question is always, "What is he like now and what does he need from me now?"

It's no trick for a woman to keep up with her husband or to continue to be a good wife to him through the years if she accepts him as he is and quits worrying about what he used to be or what she thought he was like.

METHODIST HOME NOTES

Margaret H. McBride

Apropos of the Christmas season, there seems to be an epidemic of permanent waves setting in—you know we have a really fine beauty operator who comes once a week to take care of our hair, and between shampoos, setting of waves and permanents, we manage to look pretty well. Coupled with that this week is the frantic last minute rush of sending Christmas greetings to the last on our lists, the gift parcels, and last but not least the coming-in gifts to us Saturday night we have our Christmas party, complete with a big tree, and a lot of guests of the staff here.

The Board of Directors of the Home held their quarterly meeting Tuesday, Dec. 10, with a large attendance. Mr. D. S. Dunlop, Treasurer, reported another payment of $10,000 on the indebtedness, and said the cost of the last quarter's operation of the Home amounted to $32,000. Rev. C. S. Aldrich of Chautauqua replaces Rev. H. A. McCurdy as Chairman of the Planning and Public Relations Committee. Two new members, Miss Helen Maynard of Chautauqua, and Mrs. Grace Mischler, of Meadville, were accepted on probation. The Executive Committee of Sunset Auxiliary held its meeting at the same time, and the two groups joined us in the dining hall, with Rev. Harry Barr giving the blessing. Rev. Barr was a member of the Board for many years, and is a brother of our Mrs. Josephine Carrier. Mrs. Barr was with him, and they renewed acquaintance with their many friends here.

With the milder weather, callers were a bit more numerous. Mr. Harold Bel of Forestville, N. Y., stopped over Monday on his way to Pittsburgh to attend a meeting of School Principals, and visited briefly with Mrs. Loda Hutchinson. Thursday Mrs. Cora Stafford, a sister of Mrs. Mylo Putnam, from the Sarah Reed Home in Erie was here to call, and that same day Mr. and Mrs. Harley Scott and Mrs. Wilma Owen, other Erie folks, came to see the Putnams Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Edmond Whipple from Fairview, and Mrs. Putnam's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Keeler, from Platea, were here. Friday callers included Mrs. Bonnie Lewis from Corry, who was a guest of Mrs. Ella McCray Casler, and Mrs. Elizabeth Parker, a sister of Mrs. Dora Blystone, from Saegertown, who left Thursday by bus to visit her son in Edison, Kansas, a long journey.

Mrs. Flora Hopson had a visit on Friday last from her niece, Mrs. Floyd Mowry of Greenville, then on Saturday Mr. and Mrs. Donald Graham drove over from Sharon to spend the evening with his mother, Mrs. Minnie Graham. Sunday visitors to the latter were Mr. and Mrs. Orlo Robinson, of Vernon Township, who had been old Lanesville neighbors of hers. Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. J. Stanley Schultz from Grove City came over to visit with his mother, Mrs. Anna Schultz, then Sunday brought Mr. and Mrs. Levi Cokene from the same place to see her.

Two new members, Mrs. Maud Pinches and Mrs. Mary Hoffman, from Erie, entered the Home Tuesday, and will room together, a pleasant arrangement for them as it continues an association of several years together at their apartment there. Mr. and Mrs. Carlyle Bemis of Watford were Sunday callers on Rev. and Mrs. S. H. Barlett and Mrs. Bessie Goodell, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Greenslet from Cochranon stopped in to see a lot of us, their usual "good turn." Mr. and Mrs. Orlo Robinson from Meadville and Mr. and Mrs. Carl McWilliams from Edinboro were calling on Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Jones the same day.

A Christmas greeting from our former matron, Mrs. Margaret Anderson, brings the news that she is now the Resident Director of the Student Nurses' Home at one of the large Hospitals in Pittsburgh, and is very happy in her work. She is now the proud grandmother of three little ones, the children of her daughter and her son, both of whom we have known here. This week has been full of entertaining features, with so many of our good friends coming in to do nice things for us. We are indebted to members of the Alpha Gamma Delta at Allegheny College for serving our suppers Sunday nights, when girls give us their services in bringing the wheeled cart to our doors, with sandwiches, tea or milk, and a dessert, which we eat in our own rooms, a very pleasant custom.

The New Richmond M.Y.F. came in for a worship service one Sunday night, and Mr. Joseph Reed gave us a treat by showing films of the Holy Land, taken on his recent visit to that country, another night. The Allegheny College Choir gave us a most entertaining concert, with 48 voices under Wright North's direction. This week's Sunday dinner was topped by a desert of ice cream and the most delectable cup cakes, sent to us by the members of the Lawrence Park Church in Erie, so you can see what I mean.

The first self-starter on an automobile appeared on a Cadillac in 1911.

HAPPY ANNIVERSARY!

MEAN LITTLE KIDS NABBED

Police Chief Mike Evan reported this morning that three boys aged 12 and 13 who had been stealing outdoor Christmas lights from holiday decorations on the East Side were picked up yesterday afternoon. The trio still had some of the bulbs, had used others as missiles with a "pop" target. The lads and parents received their annual Christmas lecture and the boys then marched forth alone to make sheepish apologies and restitution to the householders from whom they had stolen the Christmas decorations. Police have a line on another group of hoodlums working the Division Street area.

Many Fine Christmas Programs Are Scheduled for Television

By CHARLES MERCER

New York (AP)—A diligent lady of our acquaintance started to survey the number of television programs with a Christmas theme on the three major networks in recent and coming days. She counted up to 47 before she quit, claiming eye-strain and the call of domestic duties.

Close to the seasonal spirit of peace, good will and unanimity is the plan of the television and radio networks—ABC, CBS, Mutual, NBC—to present jointly a one-hour program of top stars on Christmas day in behalf of Hungarian relief.

Here are a few of the best television shows with a Christmas theme.

Jackie Gleason views Christmas through the eyes of the Poor Soul for a full hour Saturday night. As the Poor Soul, Gleason will journey through Christmas land for half an hour and then wander in a world of fantasy.

The cast of Your Hit Parade (NBC-TV) will assemble around the giant Christmas tree in New York's Rockefeller Plaza to sing "O Holy Night" in a program of Christmas music Saturday night.

Expanding its customary hour into 90 minutes, Alcoa Hour NBC-TV presents a musical version of Charles Dickens' "A Christmas Carol" Sunday night. Entitled "The Stingiest Man in Town," the musical casts Basil Rathbone in the role of Scrooge. It stars Vic Damone, Johnny Desmond, Patrice

GROOM TO BE FOUND DEAD

Plans were virtually complete for a January 12th wedding at Erie until death struck suddenly to cancel everything. Announcements of the wedding had been sent out and church arrangements had been made. The groom-to-be was Eugene P. Maynard, 23, an accountant at the Erie Insurance Exchange. He went to take a nap Tuesday evening on returning home from work. His mother found him dead when she went to call him.

Munsel, Robert Weede, the Four

Lads. Also Sunday, G E Theater (CBS-TV) presents "A Child Is Born," Stephen Vincent Benet's story of the Nativity with original music by Bernard Herrmann.

Voice of Firestone (ABC-TV)

the longest-lived television program of straight music, devotes its half hour to the Christmas mood Monday evening.

The NBC Opera Theater's annual presentation of "Amahl and the Night Visitors" will be seen and heard this year on the Robert Montgomery Show Monday night. Studio One (CBS-TV) presents "A Christmas Surprise," a comedy by Paul Crabtree, Monday night. Using Edward R. Murrow's Person to Person technique, it reveals what could happen if such an interview program paid a visit to "a typical American family" on Christmas Eve.

Two Members of AP Second Best Ten On the Losing End

By DON WEISS

The Associated Press
It's beginning to look as if a place of honor in the national college basketball rankings is more a kiss of death than a pat on the back.

Continuing the trend of a week that began with San Francisco's first loss in two years, 10th-rated Kansas State was spilled last night by Minnesota, two members of the Associated Press poll's second 10 were beaten, and even North Carolina, No. 3, had the scars of its life before finally struggling to its sixth straight victory.

The North Carolina Tar Heels, playing at Madison Square Garden, wound up a 64-59 winner over so-so New York University, but only after Bob Cunningham and reserve Joe Quibb had rushed to the rescue of the Carolina ace, Len Rosenbluth, who was held without a field goal for the first 30 minutes and wound up with only nine points.

Minnesota also sprung a couple of unsung players to hand K-State its first loss after four wins, 80-72. Buck Lindsay, with a five-point average, scored 21, and George Hanson added 18 to overbalance a 33-point show by State's Jack Parr.

Alabama, rated 17th, was handed a 73-50 shellacking by unranked Wake Forest, and La Salle, also unranked in the rankings, cost North Carolina State 19 its third, loss 83-78.

St. Bonaventure, regularly among the best in the East, lost its first in four 64-63 to Iowa (N.Y.) on an over-the-head shot by Joe Bernardi with 10 seconds to play. Indiana, an easy winner over La Salle earlier in the week, was beaten by Villanova 78-69. Nebraska, which dumped strong Purdue from the unbeaten list a couple days ago, needed Don Smith's one-handed from midcourt with three seconds left to nip much-beaten Texas Tech 67-56.

There were, of course, a few signs of normalcy.

Ortega Scheduled To Meet DeMarco At Garden Tonight

New York (AP)—If Gaspar Ortega repeats his upset victory over Tony DeMarco in tonight's rematch at Madison Square Garden, it will be time to take seriously the challenger of the lanky Mexican welterweight.

Ortega's split decision over the former champion in their Nov. 23 bout resulted in a revision of the 147-pound ratings. Both Ring and the National Boxing Assn. promptly awarded Ortega the No. 4 post among Carmen Basilio's challengers. DeMarco remained No. 1 with the NBA, but shipped to second in the ring.

Despite his recent defeat, DeMarco is a 2-1 favorite.

Ortega has won his last four and 36 of 43 pro starts. DeMarco's record is 45-7-1 for 53 fights.

NBC will broadcast and telecast at 10 p. m., EST.

Berra and Ford At Yankee Stadium To Sign for 1957

By JACK HAND

New York (AP)—Yogi Berra expects to see several pitchers following the lead of Don Larsen and Bob Turley, his New York Yankee teammates, by trying to pitch without a windup next season.

Berra was at Yankee Stadium yesterday with Whitey Ford, leading American League pitcher, to sign their 1957 contracts.

It was reported—or maybe guessed is the better word—that Berra will be paid $58,000 and Ford about $35,000.

Ford, whose 19-6 record for a .760 percentage was tops in the league along with his 2.47 earned run average, will have no part of the no-windup school.

"Not for me," he said. "That's for those big guys."

Berra and Ford were the first two Yanks to sign, accepting what General Manager George Weiss called "good raises."

Weiss said Yankee contracts had not been sent out but would go into the mail between Christmas and New Year's. He said Berra and Ford live nearby and "happened to drop in."

Although Weiss ducked the question, it is apparent that Berra is the highest priced Yankee since Joe DiMaggio's $100,000 days, unless Mickey Mantle suddenly spurts into the upper regions.

Berra, 31, was the Most Valuable Player in the league three years and finished second to Mantle in 1956. He batted .298, hit 30 homers and drove in 108 runs.

Fuentes Scores Split Decision Over Gavilan

Los Angeles (AP)—Underdog Ramon Fuentes kept up a bristling attack to upset former world welterweight champion Kid Gavilan of Cuba in a split 10-round decision at Olympic auditorium last night.

Odds on a Gavilan victory were 2½-1 just before the fight.

Referee Tommy Hart and Judge Frankie Van both turned in cards favoring Fuentes, by a score of 96-95. Judge Bushy Callahan had it Gavilan 98-92.

In the last game Dec. 11, Jamestown's Red Raiders gave Warren its first test as they led part of the way before being subdued 75-68.

refugees by Jan. 1. This does not include spending by provincial and local governments or private donations.

...hope the United States will help pay the bill, as well as take more of the refugees off their hands.

As Nixon started the second day of his study, newly arrived refugees reported they had experienced "great difficulties" in reaching the border area.

Only 688 Hungarians crossed into Austria during the night, compared with 1,000 or more nightly earlier this week. The refugees said that strict checks were being made on Hungarian trains and that most of those who sought to quit the country had to hitchhike or walk to the border.

The Hungarian government of Soviet-supported Premier Janos Kadar announced yesterday that entry into the frontier zone would be limited to persons with special identity cards.

Nixon hurried from his meeting with government officials to a makeshift home for 424 refugees in a four-story Vienna schoolhouse.

After shaking hands all around and chatting with many of the refugees, he visited Interior Minister Oskar Helmer, recuperating from a minor operation in a hospital; watched U. S. immigration officers interview a Hungarian family preparing to go to the United States; and visited the office of the International Committee for European Migration where refugees are processed and assigned to planes and trains for transportation to the United States and other countries.

YOUR FOREST RANGER
L. E. Stutz

The last of the great army of hunters that invaded the Allegheny National Forest the opening day of deer season have left the Forest, and hung up their rifles until the cycle of falling leaves again heralds the opening of small game season next autumn.

Bluding the hunter, during the past two weeks, did not offer half the challenge to the deer population that the struggle for survival during the bleak winter months ahead promises. Fleetness of foot, acute intelligence, protective coloring, a keen sense of smell and alertness to the movements of their enemies are all of no avail to starving deer caught in a hunger web of their own making.

Like total war, starvation does not discriminate between the sexes. The weakling dies whether it be buck, doe or yearling fawn. The spike buck that through malnutrition was unable to grow the extra inch of antler to become legal game has been spared by the hunter only to fall to the ground near some water course the victim of winter starvation.

Although death loss by starvation is an annual affair on the Allegheny National Forest, it is not the spectacular and revolting thing that man is capable of inflicting on his own kind with his concentration camps with planned mass starvation, the tool of the conqueror.

Death in the Forest by starvation is an individual affair, and the deer that crumples to the snow-covered ground is scarcely missed. I have stumbled upon their remains at the foot of a tree I was measuring for a timber sale, or upon stepping over a moss covered hemlock log have nearly stepped upon a crumpled body. Sometimes I encounter one in a stream bed or in the pit left by an ancient uprooted tree. Once I encountered one staggering down a logging road where it seemed to find the walking easier, only to fall and struggle to its feet again and again.

Like the victims of auto accidents who are picked off one or two at a time on the highways of America so that the enormity of the annual slaughter is never really comprehended by the public, the deer that die of malnutrition over the half-million acres of the Allegheny National Forest are rarely seen and never missed. And yet this death loss, and the stunted condition of the deer that do survive are as unnecessary as the senseless slaughter and crippling that occurs among American motorists and pedestrians.

More liberalized hunting, which will permit the hunting of deer of either sex, and consequent herd reduction together with a stepped up program of habitat development to create better food conditions for a reduced herd would permit the deer population of the Forest to face the rigors of winter confidently, and escape the hunger out at the concept of military pacts and alliances.

Nehru told a distinguished audience at the Carnegie Endowment Center, near the U. N., that the prestige of the United States had shot up all over the world because of "certain attitudes" it had taken in regard to the military intervention of Britain and France in Egypt.

Earlier at the U. N. Nehru called bluntly for an end to military alliances and challenged nations to settle their quarrels openly before the international body.

Nehru has been an unremitting foe of the Baghdad Pact and Southeast Asia Treaty Organization which he claimed increased instead of eliminating tension because they aroused fear and hostility.

Christmas Dragonette
Receives High Praise

Distribution of the Christmas issue of The Dragonette this afternoon was a high spot in the day's holiday festivities of Warren High School personnel, and hearty commendation was heard on all sides for the staff's fine efforts.

Among school activities featured in the very entertaining issue were the High School Y-Teens' Bell Ball on Saturday night; editorials on Christmas and student cooperation; the cheerleaders; new German students; cartoons; poems; and the customary sports and club reports.

WELL HAS BLOWOUTS

Titusville Herald: Two gas pockets were hit at 2:30 p. m. yesterday by drillers of Shaw Farm Well No. 1 near Tidoute. The strong blowouts occurred at 8,156 feet and 8,158 feet. The gas blew out with terrific force but was of short duration, about four or five minutes. Dr. Arthur Johnson of Titusville, RD 3, one of the backers of the deepest well ever drilled in this region, termed the blowouts "interesting." They occurred in the Utica shale. The tools were blown a little way up the hole. Drilling was halted until the well is cleaned out. According to calculations, the hole is within 40 feet of the top of the Trenton limestone. There will be about 1,200 feet of that to go through.

NEW EPISCOPAL DEACONS

Butler (P)—Three young men who studied nights while working days were ordained Deacons of the Pittsburgh Episcopal Diocese in a ceremony at St. Peter's Church here yesterday. They are Donald L. Campbell of Butler, A. W. Evans of North Braddock and Charles Lawrence of Pittsburgh. All are World War II veterans. The Rt. Rev. William S. Thomas Jr., suffragan bishop of the diocese, presided.

STEEL PRICE CHANGE

Pittsburgh (P)—U. S. Steel Corp. today increased its mill price bases for nickel-bearing stainless steel by 1/4 of a cent a pound. The firm said the new prices reflect recent increases in the costs of nickel.

trap that excess numbers have created.

Legal buck deer weight measurements on the Forest during the 1956 season averaged about 105 pounds. When you realize that whitetail bucks have been known to exceed 300 pounds, where food conditions were ideal, the deer weights on the Allegheny National Forest in 1956 provide a sad commentary on the condition of the deer range on this Forest and provide little hope for maximum timber crops in the future.

ceive this arrangement. The previous position has been that the Egyptian government did not object to U. N. use of the ships and equipment, but opposed use of the crews.

Lt. Gen. Hugh Stockwell, commander of the British - French forces, expressed delight at the two items of business concluded.

All that remained for the final British-French withdrawal was to put aboard the last troops and tanks holding a slim barbed wire beachhead area. Just when this would take place was not announced but the general feeling was that it would be tonight or Saturday morning.

Fog Slows Down Travel
On Land and In The Air

By The Associated Press

Fog, drizzle and rain extended over wide areas from the Mississippi Valley eastward to the Appalachians today, slowing air and highway traffic.

The fog spread eastward during the night toward the Atlantic Coast. Many Midwest airports were forced to close last night. The defense fog extended from Nebraska to Pennsylvania and southward to the Gulf of Mexico.

Rainfall in most areas was light except in eastern Pennsylvania and New York state, which reported from a quarter to half inch.

The fog was expected to continue during the day over most of the Ohio Valley and more rain or drizzle was indicated from the upper and middle Mississippi Valley to the East Coast except in New England and the Gulf states.
